

*MATHS was brought to life as pupils at a Cobham school experienced the amazing skills of "The Mathemagician". Andrew Jeffrey is in demand as one of the country's leading speakers in the field of Mathematics education. He has been featured in numerous education journals and was the subject of a recent documentary on Teachers TV. Mr Jeffrey has been a teacher for twenty years and is also a professional magician. During the day he performed his show, the Magic of Maths, to all children in Years 2 to 7. He managed to combine the twin passions of maths and magic and created an unforgettable show for staff and pupils alike.
