

A HEADMASTER went back to school and discovered just how tough it is when he spent the day shadowing a 10-year-old pupil. Phil Ward, headmaster at Feltonfleet School in Cobham spent the day shadowing Douw Styger to for a first-hand experience of what 'a day in the life of a Year 5 pupil at Feltonfleet' was really like. Among the lessons on the timetable as design technology where Mr Ward was required to build a wooden truck. Mr Ward said: "I have really enjoyed it and learnt a great deal about the lives of our pupils from Year 5, particularly the way in which they sustain their drive and energy over such a school day. There are some smashing children and we have laughed a great deal. I have also been struck by their endeavour and industry, and the quality of their teachers – very well done," said Mr Ward.

Cobham News and Mail
Wednesday 5th March 2008